

Lincoln City Public Art Inventory

Art piece	Artist/Date	Donor	Original Cost or Value	Installed	Dedicated	Life Span	Current Location	General Notes
Sea Gull Monument	Mr. Ollie Dahl	Oceanlake Booster Club	$75	1928 - 1929			801 SW Hwy 101, just outside the N.E. corner of City Hall	Donation. Plaque installed on January 18, 1950 by the North Lincoln County Chamber of Commerce. Plaque dedicated to the pioneers of North Lincoln County. Donna Eddy, Committee Person evaluated the piece in June 2023. Donna reported that it needs the seagull replaced at the top and a plaque with information on the piece to match the old plaque information. Donna Eddy suggested placement of the piece in the center of Vic Hill Memorial Park (behind City Hall). Car accident in 1985 required the piece be rebuilt in front of City Hall. A temporary plaque was put in place in 1985 and is still there to this day.
Lincoln Statue	Anna Hyatt Huntington	Anna Hyatt Huntington	(value) $100,000	September 1965	10/10/1965		Corner of NE 22nd St & Quay near Kirtsis Park	Donation. Bridle piece was still reported missing as of February 2018. Bronze Conservator had done work on it prior to Feb. 2018. Cascadia Art Conservation Center, LLC completed an assessment of the sculpture in May 2018. Donna Eddy evaluated the sculpture in June 2023 and reported the sculpture was in good condition. Fence reported as sagging and in need of staining as of June 2023.
Bull Ball Carving	Mike Smith	CETA Grant Program	$3,000	1979			Driftwood Library, hanging behind reception desk, 801 SW Hwy 101, 2nd floor
Fish sculpture (The Return)	Frank Boyden		$5,000	1980			SW 51st Street turn-around	Supposed to be rusted.
Ocean painting	Dorothy Nichol	Officers of the L.C.P.D. (donated in Memory of Beverly Schmidt & Cheryl Correia, 2 City employees killed by a drunk driver)	(value) $200	January 1982			Hanging on west wall in Finance Department, 3rd Floor, City Hall, 801 SW Hwy 101	Donation
"Olympus" framed paper collage	Sally Ward	Deanne Farnham	(value) $1,500	1995			East wall of Lincoln City Council Chamber, 801 SW Hwy 101, 3rd floor	Donation
"Jasper" Framed Oil Painting	Lisa Rahkonen	Lisa Rahkonen	(value) $4,500	2/15/2002			Police Department	Donation
Taft Arch	Fire Mountain Forge "Don Wisener"		$51,598	2002			SW 51st Street	Purchased with Urban Renewal funds. Evaluated by Committee Person Donna Eddy. Donna Eddy noted the posts and arch need painted (as of June 2023). Donna Eddy, PAC member reported posts graffitied in March of 2024.
Wood Carved Whale Bench	Bahr		$1,000	6/30/2005			Outer lobby of Driftwood Public Library, 2nd Floor, 801 SW Hwy 101
"Ozzie, Louie, & Finigan" Octopus (Ozzie), Crab (Louie) & Fish (Finigan) Sculpture	Heidi Erickson		$25,000	January 17, 2006	3/11/2006		Outside front entrance of Community Center, 2150 NE Oar Place	Purchased with Urban Renewal funds. Rust reported in July 2016. Patti Siberz, former PAC committee member has a Nov. 2015 email from the artist on maintenance and care. Powder coating company has worked on it previously for a bid. Made with steel, galvanized, hand-painted, automotive paint, powder coated. Named by a contest of elementary school students. Caitlin Pfeleiger (a 5th grader from Oceanlake Elementary at the time) came up with name of "Ozzie" for the octopus with the basketball. Karly Monson (a 5th grader from Taft Elementary School at the time) came up with the name "Louie." for the crab with the gym bag. Aavree Vertner (a 2nd grader from Taft Elementary at the time) came up with the name "Finigan" for the fish with the sneakers. Committee decided to pursue obtaining permission from the artist to do temporary repair patch work to get twenty years from the sculpture (April 2023). LCPR repaired the sculpture in 2024.
Artwork "To the Light"	Jeff Butler		$1,800	March 2008			West wall of ground floor lobby at City Hall, 801 SW Hwy 101	Purchased from Lawrence Gallery. Mixed Media medium. Certificate of Authenticity issued by Lawrence Gallery.
Copper Salmon mobile	Tim Power		$3,800 ($500 for installation)	July 2008			Mobile is hanging in ground floor entrance lobby of City Hall, 801 SW Hwy 101	Purchased with Public Art Funds. Tim Power died July 17, 2017.
Copper Salmon arch	Tim Power			July of 2008			Visitor & Convention Bureau (Explore Lincoln City)	Part of the Copper Salmon Mobile. Tim Power died July 17, 2017.
"Cascade Head" Sculpture	Don T. Wisener		$25,000	August 2008	9/13/2008		18th Street Plaza "Ed Johann Veterans Plaza" on Hwy 101. Supposed to be rusted.	Purchased with Public Art Funds. Artist chose to depict Cascade Head because he felt that it would be something that would be unique to Lincoln City. Artist used A588 high-copper-content steel for the project.
Culinary Angel	Heidi Erickson		$225	Nov-09			Originally Culinary Center rehomed to the Cultural Center	Moved Jan 2022
Kites Silk Banner	L.C. school children & Annamieka Hops (Sitka & Let There Be Arts)		$1,150	April of 2010			Hanging in the main lobby of Community Center, 2150 NE Oar Pl	Purchased with Public Art Funds. Donna Eddy viewed the banner in June of 2023. Donna Eddy mentioned that it was in good shape, but hard to notice (June 2023).
The Beach Silk Banner	L.C. school children & Annamieka Hops (Sitka & Let There Be Arts)		$1,150	April of 2010			Hanging in the main lobby of Community Center, 2150 NE Oar Pl	Purchased with Public Art Funds. Donna Eddy viewed the piece in June of 2023, mentioned that the banner was in good shape but wished it was more visible.

Lincoln City Public Art Inventory

Schooling Salmon	Taft High School students and Oceanlake Elementary 3rd grade students & Dawn Stetzel (Sitka & Let There Be Arts)		$3,500	May 2010			Lincoln City Cultural Center	Purchased with Public Art Funds. Created from cut cedar in salmon shapes. Oceanlake 3rd grade students utilized the "Annie Painter" curriculum prior to painting. Donna Eddy evaluated the Schooling Salmon in June of 2023. Donna Eddy mentioned that it looked like kids had painted them, she liked them, but felt that they could also be touched up too (June 2023). Donna Eddy reported in June 2023 that some have come unscrewed and fallen sideways, will need to be replaced when the park (castle) is redone. LCPR transferred the Schooling Salmon to Lincoln City Cultural Center August 2023 temporarily to be worked on and repainted. As of January 2025 they are close to being finished and looking at collaboration with the landscape architecture firm for siting once again in the newly designed Regtta Park.
"Beach Treasures" Mosaic (part of a set of 2 mosaics)	Sharon I Wiggins		$5,830	June 2010			Rehomed temporarily to the Public Works/Parks storage facility.	Purchased with Public Art Funds. One year warranty. Used recycled materials. Donna Eddy evaluated the mosaic in June 2023, reported that the art and frame are in good shape. PAC requested that all the mosaics recommended be cleaned and reframed (March 2024). Mosaic was taken down from the NW 17th Street site to redo the restrooms.
"Look What I Found" Mosaic (part of a set of 2 mosaics)	Sharon I Wiggins		$5,830	June 2010			Rehomed temporarily to the Public Works/Parks storage facility.	Purchased with Public Art Funds. One year warranty. Used recycled materials. Donna Eddy evaluated the mosaic in June 2023, reported that the art is okay. The frame needs to be repainted grey to match other frame and the building (Donna Eddy - June 2023). Mosaic was taken down from the NW 17th Street site to redo the restrooms.
Wecoma Tile Mosaic of underwater sea life	Ted and Judith Schlichting		$6,500	August 2010			Wecoma Restroom, south wall, NW 31st Street and Jetty Avenue	Purchased with Public Art Funds. Committee Person Donna Eddy evaluated the art piece in June 2023, noted that the mosaic was in great shape, but the frame needs staining. PAC requested that all the mosaics recommended be cleaned and reframed (March 2024).
Undersea murals "Hooked on Reading"	Lincoln City school children & Krista Eddy (through LTBA)		$6,400	August 10, 2011			Driftwood Library wall to left when entering parking lot under City Hall building and the adjacent outside wall, 801 SW Hwy 101	Purchased with Public Art Funds. Donna Eddy evaluated the piece in June 2023. Donna Eddy reported that there were rust spots and would need to be painted blue (June 2023).
Bottle cap fish	John Unger			August 2011			Lincoln City Cultural Center	Was part of a VCB event & City received artwork when event over
"Swimming" Tile Mosaic	Ted & Judith Schlichting		$20,000	September 2011	10/20/2011		North wall in pool area of Community Center, 2150 NE Oar Pl	Purchased with Public Art Funds. Donna Eddy evaluated the piece in June 2023. Donna Eddy reported that it was a beautiful piece and is well maintained (June 2023). PAC requested that all the mosaics recommended be cleaned and reframed (March 2024).
Oceanlake Arch	Dan Kauffman Excavating Inc, with the assistance of subcontractors, Tom Morgan Construction and Don Wisener, Metal Sculptor		$42,364	2012			N.W. 15th Street	Purchased with Urban Renewal Funds. Donna Eddy reported that the sand dollars need to be cleaned (June 2023). Donna Eddy reported that the sand dollars needed cleaning (March of 2024).
Betty Stanfield Memorial art piece	Ruth Brockmann & Hal Bond	Stanfield Family & L.C. Arts Committee	$10,000	Summer 2012			Driftwood Library, South Commons near the Children's Library - permanent installation on wall, 2nd Floor, 801 SW Hwy 101	Purchased with Friends of the Library funds ($7,500) and $2,500 in Public Art Funds. Piece is themed to "celebrate the art of reading" as per the family's wishes.
"Sparky, the Wish Guardian" sculpture	Heidi Erickson and Doug Kroger		$20,000	8/1/2012	8/4/2012		Regatta Grounds	Purchased with $20,000 in Public Art Funds. Artist estimates value at $108,000. Donna Eddy looked at the piece in June 2023, mentioned that it was in good shape. However, Donna Eddy reported that the sign in front needs to be replaced and the wood frame stained.
Fire Bowl	John Unger			2013			Outside of the Lincoln City Cultural Center on the west side of the building. Will be repositioned in the new Lincoln City Cultural Plaza.	Was part of a VCB event & City received artwork when event over. Donna Eddy assessed the piece in June 2023. Donna mentioned that it was in ok shape, supposed to be rusted, might need to be repurposed (Donna Eddy June 2023). Reported that it has sand in it and people place trash in it (June 2023).
Salmon Tile Mosaic (Jennifer Sears Studio Glass Tile)	Let There Be Arts, Summer Camp, Grades 4-11 with Kaline Klaas and Krista Eddy	Let There Be Arts	$1,580 (Other reported cost/value of $2,396)	September of 2013	Oct. 25, 2013		Originally north side of Jennifer Sears Glass Studio rehomed to the Lincoln City Community Center. Located on the north side of the Community Center building.	Purchased with Urban Renewal and Public Art Funds. Donna Eddy viewed the piece in June 2023 and reported it was in good shape, but frame needs staining. PAC requested that all the mosaics recommended be cleaned and reframed (March 2024).
Joe the Sea Lion	Justin Sparks (Painter)	Suzanne Allen	$1,000	8/20/2014	9/29/14 to Suzanne's husband Clarence		SW 35th Beach Access	Joe is painted fiberglass (cement filled) and needs regularly scheduled maintenance. Repainted as of Sept. 2016, just needs a coat of paint periodically. Cement considered a bad idea. Bronze preferred. Donna Eddy evaluated the statue and reported the piece needs paint and whiskers (June 2023).
From the Earth - Glass Mosaic	Joanne Daschel		$917	Oct 10, 2014; rehomed in 2022			4th floor of City Hall, by the Culinary Center, rehomed to LCCC (Lincoln City Cultural Center) upstairs hallway of LCCC.	Compromised with stained glass and "smalti" (the traditional form of mosaic glass) on tile-backer board brand Wedi. Donna Eddy looked over the piece in June 2023, reported that the piece was in great shape in the hallway of LCCC. PAC requested that all the mosaics recommended be cleaned and reframed (March 2024).
The "Wave" Median	Urban Renewal Project						U.S. Hwy. 101 intersection in OceanLake District NW 21st/NE 21st Street	Wave-like pattern on the highway median. It's part of the Oceanlake Medians, intended to address the needs of traffic calming, streetscape beautification and access management. Planned repainting in spring of 2024. December 2024 an accident damaged a portion of the piece.
Aspire	Sam Bresnio			Nov. 7th 2014	11/14/2014		Lincoln City Cultural Center	Sam Bresnio died in November 2015. Donna Eddy evaluated the piece in June 2023, reported that the piece had some rust, covered with climbing plants.

Lincoln City Public Art Inventory

Community Art Mural Project (Street Murals)	Crystal Akins (Meneses), Todd Beaty, Ashlin Bush, Miles Browne (Activate Arts)			2020					Approved by City Council March 2020. The inspiration of the project to address isolation. "Morning Star" mural to honor a tribal elder Grandma Agnes. Grandma Agnes being instrumental in bringing back the 'Salmon Ceremony.' "Ice Cream and Waves" is based on an article that Crystal Akin (Meneses) read about terminal children's favorite days of life; how they loved ice cream and going to the beach, to teach the importance of enjoying life at every opportunity. Donna Eddy assessed the murals in June 2023. Noted that the Vibrations mural showed worn paint in front of the instruments (June 2023 Eddy). The Octopus mural in Nelscott was mentioned as having lots of paint chipped off all over the painting (Donna Eddy June 2023). Hannunvaakuna was reported to have a small amount of paint chipped off (Donna Eddy June 2023). The Moring Star was noted by Donna Eddy in June 2023 that it showed moderate chipping.
Community Center Mural	Krista Eddy and Kids			2021			Community Center		Donna Eddy evaluated the mural in June of 2023. Donna Eddy mentioned that the mural needs washing, that there are splashes on the mural (June 2023).
Poppy	Pete Beeman		$120,000	11/19/2022	1/10/2023		Lincoln City Cultural Center		Purchased with Public Art Funds. Named for Pete Beeman's mother's childhood nickname. Pete Beeman's mother passed away in September 2022. Pete Beeman was looking for a sculpture name that was "short, catchy, upbeat, light and happy." Donna Eddy assessed the piece in June 2023, mentioned that it is beautiful and interesting, but needs to be able to push the device in order to move the antennas.
Friends of the Forest	James Russell Lukinich		$3,900 (Approximate Value)	Sept. 2021			Intersection of NE West Devils Lake Road and U.S. Hwy. 101 at the West Devils Lake Road Pump Station		Friends of the Forest was created by arborist and chainsaw sculptor James Russell Lukinich. It was believed to be created voluntarily by the artist. The sculpture was named through a contest facilitated by Lincoln City Parks and Recreation in the fall of 2021 and the name of "Friends of the Forest" was the contest winner in November 2021.
Land Acknowledgement Wind Screen	Jessel Champoux and Alex Antias of Shapiro Didway Landscape Architects in collaboration with Siletz Tribal members Peter Hatch and Nick Viles. Printed by Driving Force Graphics of Bend, Oregon.	Funded by grants from the Oregon Coast Visitors Association, the Siletz Tribal Charitable Contribution Fund, the Autzen Foundation and individual contributions to the Invest in Inspiration Campaign.	$32,000 (Adhesive backing was $2,600.00 and additional costs of $4,000)	Spring of 2024	6/11/2024		Lincoln City Cultural Center, South Entrance		Land Acknowledgement Wind Screen is a triptych mural, which is nine feet tall and fourteen feet long designed to show the Indigenous history of the Lincoln City Cultural Center. It includes the original treaty and map of the former Coast Reservation, with a photo of Sophia Dick Holland, a Siletz Tribal member of Neachesna (Salmon River Tillamook) descent who held the allotment property at the outlet to Devils Lake. Also included in the mural are basket weave patterns, and "welcome" in three languages (Chinook Jargon, Athabaskan, and English).
The Magic of Lincoln City Kite Festival Mural	Jeremy Nichols and Blaine Fontana of Fontana Studios	N/A	$25,000.00	7/16/2024	9/6/2024	50 years	East wall of McKay's Market at 801 SW Hwy. 101		Paid by City of Lincoln City Percent for Art fund. The mural is based off of a still from the Travel Oregon 2021 Only Slightly Exaggerated campaign. The still captures a scene from the Lincoln City Kite Festival. Explore Lincoln City partnered with Travel Oregon to create a mural of this scene in Lincoln City, to be placed on a wall of McKay's Market building facing Highway 101, located one-half-mile from the Kite Festival site. It serves as an outdoor free-standing installation. Final measurements for the mural were 26.5 in height and 62 feet in width.
Oregon Coast Scavenger Hunt Mural in Kirtsis Park	Yelizaveta Bakhtina	N/A	$6,200.00	8/29/2024		10 years or more	Across from the third base in the dugout area at Kirtsis Park. 2205 NE 22nd St, Lincoln City, OR 97367		Paid by City of Lincoln City Percent for Art fund. Yelizaveta Bakhtina began work on the mural in July of 2024. She later came up with the idea of doing an additional segment of the mural as an add-on that would be a scavenger hunt for children to identify animals in the mural in August 2024. Was formerly the Underwater Scene of Whales Mural by Rick Rader.
Gary the Octopus	Dreamland Skate Park	Kiwanis Club of Lincoln City (Sponsor)	$15,000.00	3/7/2024	5/25/2024		Outside of the Lincoln City Cultural Center on the north side of the building.		"Gary the Octopus," is Dreamland Skate Parks first "non skate-able creature." The statue is surrounded by a number of mosaic sea creatures that complement the presence of the octopus. The octopus's glass eyes were designed and created by local glass artist, Kelly Howard. Located on the Cultural Plaza at the Lincoln City Cultural Center, "Gary the Octopus" is the center piece of the Plaza's Kiwanis Outdoor Art Classroom.
Nearshore	Joanne Daschel	Kiwanis Club of Lincoln City (Sponsor)	$15,000.00	Mosaics completed in February 2023 and installation in November 2023.	5/25/2024	10+ years	Outside of the Lincoln City Cultural Center on the north side of the building.		Nearshore is a series of tidepool-inspired porcelain tile mosaics by local artist Joanne Daschel. The Kiwanis Club of Lincoln City helped to sponsor the mosaic pieces. Funding from the Roundhouse Foundation helped provide funding for the project. Installation costs were paid for by the Lincoln City Cultural Center. Installation was done by Cascade Civil Coporation. Joanne Daschel did the design and fabrication.
Flight	Joanne Daschel		$7,800.00	Mosaics were completed in October 2024. Installation took place on 11/6/24.	12/15/2024	30 years	Schooner Creek Discovery Park, Accessible Playground Walking Path at 4815 SE 51 St.		In celebration of the unique ecology of Schooner Creek within the Siletz Bay basin, Joanne created a series of mosaic inlays depicting local, native birds. The bird inlays are made with unglazed porcelain tile and glass smalti for the text. They were designed at the request of the LC public art committee, and Joanne collaborated with member photographers of the Seven Capes Bird Alliance for reference images. The inlays are installed throughout the kids' play area, relative to the water or hillside habitats.